Technical characteristics

A graphic impulse, an organ, the heart, lent rhythm by the bustle of an imaginary architectural anthill inspired by the magnificent town of Lyon. Au Cœur de la ville (in the heart of town), such is the name of this piece of wall art comprising 12 plates in stoneware and porcelain. An urban puzzle nested together on the wall, an invitation to live at the pace of our imaginary cities. Wall-mounted panorama composed of 12 moulded, silk-screen printed stoneware plates. Supplied with a positioning template and an ingenious wall fixing system which requires no holes to be made.
